The Grain Trade and Pork Market.

The receipts of lumber during the last week have been nearly 3,000,000 of feet. The total receipts of the season are now over 458,000,000 of feet, as follows:

Week ending Dec. 4	2,999,000 feet.
Month of November	14,302,815 "
" October	25,000,000 "
" September	66,185,000 "
" August	78,160,000 "
" July	86,295,479 "
" June	86,000,000 "
" May	96,142,926 "
Previously	19,196,418 "
Total	458,032,198 feet.

The receipts by railroads during the last week have been 9,813 barrels flour, 80,978 bus wheat, 12,594 bus corn, and 24,526 bus oats, equivalent to 157,138 bus of grain, against 149,296 bus of the preceding week, and 466,581 bus of the week before. The total receipts of the season are now 299,723 bbls flour, 9,341,968 bus wheat, 6,095,740 bus corn, and 6,108,334 bus oats, or a total equivalent to 18,119,030 bus of grain.

The only shipments by lake during the week have been 920 bbls flour and 30,100 bus wheat, equivalent to 34,760 bus. of grain, against 124,426 bus of the preceding week, and 586,614 bus of the week before. The shipments by railroads have not been large, the high rate of the freight tariff now prevailing, acting almost as a prohibition on shipments. The total shipments of the season are now 159,436 bbls flour, 9,530,961 bus wheat, 6,880,433 bus corn, and 383,188 bus oats, or a total equivalent to 17,728,329 bushels of grain.

Fifty-four cents in store is now all that is paid for spring wheat.

The pork and provision market is tolerably active, but the sales are generally at a slight decline from last week's prices. Live hogs are plenty at $3,25@3,75 per 100 lbs., and dressed at $4,50@4,75 per 100 lbs. Mess pork sells at $13 per bbl, cash, and lard at 9c per lb, in bbls, also for cash.

The following is a summary of the grain trade for the present year:

Congress.

By the reports from Washington it will be seen that both Houses of Congress organized yesterday. In the House, Hon. JAMES L. ORR, of South Carolina was elected Speaker on the first ballot, and the Hon. JAMES C. ALLEN, of Illinois, Clerk. In the absence of the VICE PRESIDENT, the Senate chose the Hon. MR. FITZPATRICK, of Alabama, as President pro tempore. The message will be communicated, in all probability, today.

The Kansas Difficulty Settled.

Those who have thought that there would be any serious difficulty in the Democratic party, growing out of the Lecompton Constitution, are doomed to disappointment. The Lecompton Constitution is a dead letter. An effort may be made to galvanize it in Congress, but its fate is sealed—and that too before its presentation. The Administration have no power or control over the Lecompton Constitution or the admission of Kansas or any other State. Mr. Buchanan will not interfere in any way in this matter; the Administration has not committed itself in any possible way against remanding the Constitution for a popular vote. The Administration will cheerfully approve an act to enable the people of Kansas to hold a Convention and frame a State government.

The struggle will therefore be in Congress. There it may be severe for a while, but ultimately the Lecompton Constitution will be remanded for popular approval or rejection. Following this, in all probability, will be an enabling act. The Democratic party will therefore secure to Kansas a fair opportunity, in the regular mode, and in pursuance of an act of Congress, to elect a Convention, and to have a State Constitution expressing the will of the people. With such a Constitution Kansas will be promptly admitted.

☞ John Gray, who lives near Adrian, Michigan, after leaving for town, thought he discovered a great smoke in the direction of his own dwelling which he had just left, and returned. He found his house in flames, and his wife nearly consumed. So fierce was the flames that it was utterly impossible for the husband to extricate his wife, and he accordingly was compelled to stand and see her, his house, furniture and a little over $100, all be possessed on earth, devoured by fire. It is supposed that Mrs. Gray was taken in a fit, as she was subject to them, and probably fell against the chimney, which was composed of sticks, causing them to fall with a crash upon her directly into the fireplace, and of course all took fire immediately. What is most strange, Mr. Gray's little daughter, aged 4 years, seized her little sister, a babe in the cradle, and bore her into the road, thereby saving its life.

CALIFORNIA ITEMS.

From the Boston Post's "California Dust," we gather the following sparkling grains picked up in that region:

A powerful man is described by the police reporter of the Alta, in one Michael Maloney, for his wife thrashed in open fight, and he attempted to beat her and her three children with a sofa. It was a formidable weapon truly. To knock a man down with a chair is a common thing, but to beat a woman with a sofa is a little way out of the usual order of things.

We have before us, says a Sacramento paper, a few rolls of native California tobacco, grown in the county of Los Angeles, and forwarded to us by a correspondent in that city. It is pronounced by several connoisseurs about us as fully equal to the imported chewing tobacco. It is moist, sweet, but of positive flavor, and sends forth exceeding delightful aroma.

Four citizens of the little village of Santa Cruz, up country, were weighed recently and the Sentinel gives their names and figures as follows: Judge Scott, 255 lbs; Judge Rice 251; Capt. Graham 241; and Eli Moore 231. Aggregate weight one thousand thirty-eight pounds.

The Calaveras Chronicle says that Mr. Parker, a farmer living down on the Mokelumne, in that county, has left in the editor's office a box of Irish potatoes, being part of the products of a single hill, and out of which he took forty one pounds. The largest of these weighs two and a-half pounds. They are solid and in every respect excellent. One of his friends took from a hill in the same patch fifty-six pounds.

ANTI-RENT OUTRAGE IN SULLIVAN CO., N. Y.—On Monday, the 9th ult., Mr. Ira Porter was dispossessed by Sheriff Leroy of the premises then occupied by him, under a lease owned by John Hunter, jr., and Mr. James L. Deere was then put in possession. On the morning following, he found the letters which he mentioned, warning him to leave.—No attention was paid to these threats, and on Saturday night, the 14th ult., about 10 o'clock, firing at the house began. Several shots were fired, and marks of musket balls to the number of 30, were found in the sides of the house. Several of the balls penetrated the house, striking upon the roof of the kitchen beyond. Fortunately, the rest of the family were sleeping in rooms not exposed to the firing. Who the shooters were, or their number, is only conjectured. The letters following were found on a split of boards near the house. The first was inclosed in an envelope, addressed to "James L. Deere," and also contained powder and balls. The second was stuck in a split stick, and erected over the boards to attract attention:

Items of News and Other Matters.

The Warsaw (Mo.) Democrat thus sums up the substance of a letter received by a citizen of that county from a Mrs. Hudelson, written soon after the arrival of the latter in California. Mrs. H. gives a thrilling description of the dangers and hardships attending an overland trip to California. They were hourly in danger of being attacked by Indians and Mormons, who, says Mrs. H., range in bands together, robbing, pillaging and murdering unprotected trains of emigrants. Mrs. H. overtook one train from Illinois belonging to a Mr. Holloway, which had been attacked by a band of marauders. His wife and child had been killed before his eyes, he himself badly wounded, and stripped of all his property, including fifteen hundred dollars. Mr. Holloway's sister was along, but during the excitement of the attack she escaped, and driving six miles on, overtook another company, who returned with her to the scene of blood. The murderers had completed their work and were gone. Mrs. H. and her company came to the rescue of another train which had been attacked, finding a woman lying upon the ground with her scalp taken off.

One of Henry Fox's jokes was that played off on Mrs. ——, who had a great fondness for making the acquaintance of foreigners. He first forged a letter of recommendation to her in favor of a German nobleman, the Baron Von Seidlitz Powders, whose card was left at her door, and for whom a dinner was immediately planned by Mrs. ——, and an invitation sent in form. After waiting a considerable time, no baron appearing, the dinner was served; but during the second course, a note was brought to the lady of the house with excuses from the baron who was unexpectedly prevented from coming by the sudden death of his aunt, the Duchess Von Ebaom Salts, which she read out to the company without any suspicion of the joke, and to the entertainment of her guests, among whom was the facetious author.

The coroner of St. Louis having occasion to go east, has published a notice requesting persons who may feel disposed to throw business into his hands, to wait until his return.

The unfortunate Mrs. Carrie Woodman arrived at Vicksburg, Miss., on Friday of last week, and immediately proceeded to the residence of her father.

Thomas F. Meagher is to deliver a course of lectures in Charleston, S. C., next month.

The "rude" wives of two fast men in this city came a nice game over their liege lords a few evenings since, in the manner following: Being unable to get any money from them for current expenses, they concluded to ascertain where they spent their money. Disguising themselves, they traced them to a saloon. After drinking with them several times and winning about $30 each from them at the card table, they preceded them home. To the great astonishment of their husbands, they were in funds for several days, afterwards.—Herald.

General J. Pinckney Henderson, successor to General Rusk, is again lying very ill in Texas, and may not be able to take his place in the Senate this winter.

The Wire-Grass Reporter, published at Thomasville, Ga., says that the deer in the counties of Irwin and Worth, in that State, are dying in great numbers. Many have been found dead in the woods, and many others caught by dogs after a short chase. A hunter discovered a large buck by hearing him cough, a few days since, and killed him. He was diseased. The blood was thin and watery, and the joints seemed to be bloodshot. The deer are dying in vast numbers in Thomas, Baker, Colquitt and Henry counties, as well as in Irwin and Worth.

Col. Kinney, of Greytown, was on the 18th ult. stopping at Aspinwall.

The President of the United States has directed the removal of the land office from Duncan to Mackinaw, in Michigan. Instructions will be immediately issued by the General Land office to carry this order into effect.

The Roman Catholics have churches on this continent in which there is preaching in English, German, French, Spanish, Italian, Bohemian, Indian and Chinese.

The Ogunawka Spectator says that a grey eagle was killed by Mr. Julius Froelich, of that place, on the island opposite town, on Wednesday evening last. It measured, within a fraction, eight feet from tip to tip of wings.

A Mrs. Mulberry, a lady in the Albany almshouse, on thanksgiving day, presented the overseers with two girls and one boy at one birth. A fine crop of Mulberries.

A late American editor, who has gone over to the locofoco side of politics, complains of a "violent pain in the region of the left auricle of the heart," because the Democratic party "is a leetle too much on that side.—Louisville Journal.

It can't be that, for your true know nothing can lie as well on one side as the other.—Boston Post.

In Wheeling, Virginia, a young man, for five dollars, hired a neighbor to frighten his sweetheart by dressing as a ghost, and advising her in a sepulchral tone, to marry him. Some of the fast young men caught the bogus ghost and belabored him until he called for quarter in a manner resembling a human being.

An Indian giant was lately exhibited at a fair in Georgia. He is only eighteen years old, nearly eight feet high, and weighs four hundred and sixty pounds.

Charles Young, a German, 83 years old, and a cabinet maker by trade, hung himself to a bed post in Cincinnati, on Friday.

We learn from the Centerville (Md.) Advocate, that on Friday evening last, Miss Goldsborough, a young lady visiting the family of Mr. John Keets, near Wye Mills, and a sister of Mr. Keets' wife, retired to her room for the night, and, as was her custom, seated herself before the fire to read awhile before going to bed. After reading some time she fell asleep, and when she awoke found that her garments had caught fire and the flame was rapidly enveloping her. Before those in the house could come to her relief, she was so horribly burned that her flesh fell in flakes upon the floor. She died early the following morning.

On Sunday afternoon last, Miss Olean Taylor, a young lady, residing at New Albany, committed suicide in her room by hanging. Her parents had left her to take care of her younger brothers and sisters while they attended church, and shortly after their departure she gave the children permission to visit a neighboring family. When her parents returned, search was made for her and she was found in her room dead, having used a leather strap by tying it to the bed post and around her neck. Miss Taylor was about twenty-two years of age, beautiful and highly accomplished, the daughter of wealthy parents, and possessed of a large fortune in her own right. On Monday night of last week she attended a ball in this city, and from her pastimes it is said by those who knew her, that she was unusually joyous. No cause is assigned for her rashness.—Columbus, O., Fost, let us!

The Boston Bee understands that Mr. Kalloch has resigned his pastorate of the Tremont Temple Society, to take effect in three months, and that he intends to enter upon the practice of the law, for which profession he has lately been fitting himself.

The Manchester (Eng.) Examiner records the following:

On Sunday morning a young man, with his infant wife, present, drowned themselves before the altar of St. John's Church, Manchester road, Bradford, to be made one. The Rev. Mr. Gordon appeared, for the time being, to officiate. The service was proceeded with, and the minister had got so far as to cry, "Will thou have this man to be thy husband, to keep, to cherish," &c. In a moment the bride started up and rushed to the door, followed by the astonished bridegroom, who tried to induce her to return; but in vain, as she closed the whole colloquy by declaring, "I wesut be bound to keep the." The amazement of all parties may be imagined.

Brigham Young's Plans.

The following letter was written by a woman at Salt Lake City to her husband, who was on a visit here:

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 4th, 1857.

MY DEAR HUSBAND:—I have just received your letter to me, and also read one you wrote to sister ——. I am much disappointed, for I thought you would say positive you was coming home this fall. I think it you understood the spirit of the times in the Valley you would want to be here.

All the men are preparing for war, both old and young. Some companies have gone out to meet the enemy; more are ready to go when called for.

The carrying companies are all coming in; what they cannot bring with them they destroy. They have burned hundred of tons of hay at the stations.

Brother Brigham says, if the brethren will stand by him, he will never let the Gentiles come into the Valleys. He says, before they shall come here, we will burn every house, and leave our city, and flee to the mountains. We will make a Moscow of the cities and towns in these Valleys, and a Potter's Field of every canon that our enemies come into.

Brother Kimball says the women must have a dirk knife, so I wish you would bring me one.

You must bring plenty of powder and lead.—Brother Brigham says, if every Saint will live up to their religion, we will never be driven from these Valleys. We shall stay here until the time comes to go to Jackson county. We shall no more be called the traitors of Utah, but the true people of America. Yours, affectionately.

It would seem from the reference to Jackson county that the Mormons still entertain the idea that they will return in triumph to Jackson county, Missouri, from whence they were driven in 1833.

The letter from which we make the foregoing extracts is a bona fide one, and we have no doubt gives a correct idea of the intentions of the Mormon rulers, so far as they have been made known to their followers.

HOOPS.—The editor of the Cosmopolitan Art Journal brings a round and sweeping accusation against a distinguished performer on the New York boards. We leave the decision of the question to those who are inside of her hoops:

Among the last "exhibitions" may be mentioned Madame Lagrange's recalling, who is now starring upon our operatic boards. In Somnambula she appeared as the sleep-walker, properly dressed in night clothes, but wearing most enormous hoops! Query—Did the somnambulist go to bed with a crinoline on? Again in Lucrezia Borgia we are also introduced to the Roman maid, hooped a la mode. So in Lucia de Lammermoor, hoops are made to play a prominent part. What on earth can outrage upon all sense of decency and propriety is such a catering to the taste of fashion. We may next expect to see "the noblest Roman of them all" parade the stage in one of Bloomer's best waters, Queen Isabella in a pantaloon and cigar in mouth. We are happy to say that Madame Lagrange exercises a better judgment, and leaves her hoops behind the scenes.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The President and the Kansas Question—The Message.

Correspondence of the New York Times.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.

The Times is quite right in doubting the truth of the representations that have been made of the President's position on the Kansas question. They have done him, as well as Governor Walker, great injustice.

The message will express a distinct approval of Governor Walker's entire official course in Kansas. The President will also, in that document, express the opinion that the Convention should have submitted the whole Constitution to the popular vote, and his own regret that it did not pursue this course; while he will also say that in his opinion the spirit of the Kansas-Nebraska bill has been carried out in the submission of the question of slavery, which has been the principal topic of controversy. But the President will not recommend the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution, nor even suggest any specific action upon it. He will merely lay that document before the legislative body for its consideration.

It has been stated that the President desires Governor Walker to return to Kansas, but that he declines to do so. This conveys an erroneous impression. It is perfectly understood here that Gov. Walker is not only willing, but anxious, to return to Kansas, provided he can do so without any departure from the course he has hitherto pursued.—His instructions, as he understood them, warranted him in assuring the people of Kansas that the whole constitution should be submitted to them. If the President will assent to this construction of them, and permit Gov. Walker to act upon it, as he has done hitherto, he will start for Kansas at an hour's notice, and do everything in his power for the preservation of the public peace.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Dec. 3.

The canvassing for the offices in the gift of the House absorbs attention over everything else at present.

The great fight continues on the printer. Stedman, of Ohio, has many strong backers in the West, and Banks, of the South Side Democrat, many from the South. The present probability is that many of these may combine with the friends of Stedman, or that the former will be elected by an arrangement with Wendell's friends, who has a strong force committed to him.

Robinson appears to maintain the inside track for the clerkship.

Orr's friends profess great confidence in his success for the speakership, calculating much on the fact that the opposition to him has not yet been concentrated on any other Southern candidate.—Either Galusha A. Grow, or Israel Washburn will receive the complimentary votes of the Republicans for Speaker.

Senator Douglas called on the President to-day who read to him a part of his message. It is stated with probable truth, that in his original draft of the message the President took decided ground in favor of sustaining the action of the Lecompton Convention, but that he has recently stricken that portion out, and will be silent on that point.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE N. Y. TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5, 1857.

Senator Douglas and the President had a conference this morning on Kansas affairs, but without any satisfactory result. The President adheres to the position he took in the conferences with Governor Walker, that the Lecompton Convention must be sustained. Senator Douglas denounces the Convention, and maintained that the whole Constitution ought to be submitted to the people. The Democratic camp is troubled again.

SECOND DISPATCH.

Senator Douglas was serenaded by his friends at 10 p. m. to-night, and made a brief speech complimentary to Washington City, avowing his continual adhesion to constitutional principles, but not giving the least indication of his course on the Kansas question. He will probably show his hand on Monday.

FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3, 1857.

Senator Douglas is emphatic in denouncing the Kansas Constitution as violative of the spirit of the Nebraska bill, and as ignoring the pledges and professions of the Democracy. He proclaims his opposition, if the instrument presented to Congress is identical with that published, and only waits for the official documents. Without expressing the purpose distinctly, he is understood to favor the introduction of an enabling act for a new convention.

NOTICE.—HAVING PUBLISHED IN THE Chicago Times a notice warning the public against negotiating for certain judgment notes given by me, and made payable to Nathan Pangborn or order, charging that the same were obtained fraudulently and without consideration, I am now convinced that my suspicions were grounded, and take this method of counteracting any mischief that said article may have led upon the reputation and character of, as I now believe, an honest and honorable citizen.

CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE.

JAY, MEDILL & CO., PUBLISHERS. OFFICE IN THE TRIBUNE BUILDINGS, 51 CLARK STREET. TERMS...EIGHT DOLLARS PER YEAR.

VOL. XI. CHICAGO, TUESDAY MORNING DECEMBER 8, 1857. NO. 155.

DAILY TRIBUNE.

Tuesday Morning.....Dec. 8, 1857.

THIRTY-FIFTH CONGRESS met and organized yesterday. Under the new law for the first time of members, fifty-two Senators and two hundred and twenty-two Representatives were entitled to be promptly in their seats. The Vice-President was absent. After choosing FITZPATRICK, of Alabama, President pro tem., and Geo. W. BOWMAN, of Bedford, Pa., Publisher of Public Printing, the SENATE adjourned.

In the first ballot for Speaker of the HOUSE, JAMES L. ORR, Democrat, of South Carolina, received 125 votes, against 84 for GALUSHA A. GROW, Republican, of Pennsylvania, and 13 scattering. Mr. ORR was declared elected.

Before that the Clerk, Doorkeeper and Postmaster were also elected, though our telegraph does not mention the fact. Mr. THOMAS, of Pa., gave notice that he should introduce a bill driving out of circulation all bank notes of a less denomination than $100 in the District of Columbia. This is doubtless right for more important legislation, embracing a wider range of country.

Immediately after adjournment of the House, the Clerk, Doorkeeper and Postmaster were besieged by legions of famished patriots, claiming their reward for services not rendered. It is a gratifying reflection to those who own their own bread, that ninety-nine out of every hundred of these jackals will not get a small of the carcass.

The Lemmon Slave Case.

In Supreme Court of New York have reversed the previous decision in the LEMMON case, declaring the Slaves entitled to their liberty, and denying the right of transit to the cases of that species of property. Judge DAVIES dissented. The case now goes to the Court of Appeals—thence probably to the Court of Last Resort.

Senate Election—The Question Settled—Randall Elected.

The matter has finally been received, and the Senate stands 33 majority. La Pointe county has given only one to hear from officially. It is reported 40 majority for CROSS, and cannot vary much from that. Admitting this report to be correct, RANDALL has 202 majority in the Senate after allowing the 5 rejected towns their entire county, which gave 321 majority, and which don't vote. McGraw, for State Prison Inspector, and Hastings, for Treasurer, are also safe, no doubt, elected.

The Lake Pepin Disaster.

On the 29th ult., the body of McLone, one of the six persons lost in the small boat on Lake Pepin, some two weeks since, was found on the Minnesota side of the Lake, frozen into the ice, and the boat was found a few rods from it, and in ten feet water. The mail bag, money, and certified official canvass of the county, were found in the boat. The bodies have not yet been discovered.—Only six persons lost instead of five, as reported.

The President's Message.

The document will doubtless see the light in this place to-day. There is no copy in this city. We are informed that advance copies were forwarded to New York, Philadelphia and Richmond, Va. The dispatch conveying this intelligence omitted Dinwiddie Court House and Point Comfort, but it is impossible that these places should have been overlooked. It is stated, that Richmond, Va., is only 100 miles from the capital, and contains less than 40,000 inhabitants, black and white, and a very small voting population, it is to be regretted that the Enquirer copy could not have been forwarded to Chicago, Cincinnati or St. Louis, where a fraction of country west of the Alleghanies would have been speedily in possession of the document. The latter city copies are good a slave pen as Richmond, notwithstanding its business is depressed of late, is doing somewhat into disrepute. While we are glad, as public journalists, to furnish our readers with the message at the earliest possible moment, we believe it will get there as fast as its merits entitle it to come.

The Arrival of the British and American Banks Did.

On the arrival of the Baltic places us in possession of European advices up to noon of Nov. 19. The most notable item is the recovery of mercantile confidence, and subsidence of the panic. The wise and vigorous course pursued by the Bank of England has checked the alarm, restored confidence, relieved distress, and set the wheels of business again in motion, and the specie is coming through its accustomed channels. The Bank of France pursued a similar course, and with similar results. The rule adopted by the Bank of England was, a discount every good piece of paper presented. Millions of dollars were thus thrown into circulation—the crisis was met and the panic buried. How widely different the course of the New York and American Banks! In defiance of the Ohio Life and Trust Co. was the source of the unfortunate contraction. The two Governments was rigorously and recklessly followed in other Eastern and then in other cities, scattering ruin and distress among them. When all things were weighed, and weighed, they obligingly discounted every body, and got every body. At the first shock they shut their doors, suspended their customers to pay up, and relief was extended. The crash came, the banks clapped the screws upon the people unmercifully, and crushed it to the earth. It now lies prostrate and panting. At the first sound of the line of policy adopted by the bankers, and cashed each good piece of paper presented, the panic would have blown over, doing little damage, and there would have been nothing over a rotten crash was ripe for bankruptcy. But would have flowed steadily along, through its accustomed channels, and thousands of men, now laid low, would be on their feet, and thousands of laborers, depending on the hand of charity for bread, would be earning their own livelihood, and industry and enterprise would be reaping their proper reward.

We would not see the spectacle of millions of gold locked up and the vaults of the New York banks, while merchants under protest, and their laborers begging for work in the streets of the Metropolis, and selling at ten per cent discount, and wheat down to four shillings per bushel in Liverpool, while we would not see a whole nation—every man demanding of his neighbor, "pay me what thou owest me," and unable to comply; we would not see a single boy or clerical, seizing pleasure worth $6,000 to satisfy an execution for one-third the amount. It is perfectly safe to say that the panic sustained by this nation, in the derangement of business, depreciation in the price of products and railroad stocks, loss of employment, fall in the value of real and personal property, sacrifice of assets of business men driven to protest and assignment, difference of exchange between the West and East, and shocking rates of interest charged on borrowed money, caused by the blind, selfish course of the banks—is more than double the aggregate capital invested in all the banks in the United States. A three years' war waged, with England and France combined against us, would not inflict so heavy a pecuniary loss upon the trade and industry of this nation as have the banks since the Life and Trust Company went down. And what benefit have they obtained for themselves by pursuing their insane-wicked policy? None. They have not even a homestead in the usurer's field.

Backing Down.

We make the following extract from a private letter received from a gentleman in Washington, who is well posted. It is dated Friday night, December 4th:

"Douglas is backing down step by step from the position he held in the parlor of the Tremont House of Chicago, a few days ago. He does not talk so boldly before the Southern members as he did before Dr. Brainard, Ex-Mayor Dyer, S. S. Hayes, Dr. McVicar, Thos. Hoyne, J. W. Sheahan and other great lights of the party in Chicago, in his interview with them the day before he started for this city. No, he don't talk out as he did at home. He is becoming circumspect and cautious and conciliatory in the presence of the oligarchy. He has not the pluck or backbone his friends supposed. The Lecompton swindle will be patched up in some way, and the Democracy of the North will go on as before—"infamous and contented." All the Pennsylvania delegation here are with the President and the South is a unit. It is reported that nine of the twelve democratic members from New York sustain the South, also the two Senators and three Representatives from New Jersey; and several Western Democrats allow symptoms of a weakness in the knees. From all I can see and hear I am satisfied that the South will again triumph."

Yours, &c.

A Banker Cowhided by a Lady.

[Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.]

JANESVILLE, December 5, 1857.

Editors Tribune:—On last Tuesday the good people of Janesville were furnished with a bit of excitement, growing out of the cowhiding of Mr. John P. Hoyt, a well known banker of this city, by Mrs. Clarinda A. Andrews, the proprietress of a millinery store.

In the morning, as Hoyt was passing up West Milwaukee street to his office, Mrs. Andrews saw him from her store on the opposite side of the street, and seizing a stout cowhide which she had provided for the purpose, crossed the street, and the following conversation ensued: Mrs. A.—"Is your name Hoyt?" H.—(Bowing politely) "It is, madame." Mrs. A.—"You have acted the traitor to me and my husband;" and without further ado the lady proceeded to administer a severe flagellation, laying her whip over Hoyt's face and shoulders with an emphasis which was feelingly appreciated by the recipient.

The proceeding of course collected quite a crowd, and, the bystanders interfering, Hoyt escaped from the clutches of Madame A. A warrant was procured from the Police Court and the lady brought before that tribunal to answer to a charge of assault and battery. The sapient dispenser of law in that Court fined her $50 and costs, which sum was promptly paid by the citizens.

The cause of the difficulty was alleged sharp practice with a mortgage, and bad faith on the part of Hoyt.

The Fugitive Slave Case at Indianapolis

—In the case of the fugitive slave recently arrested at Naples, Ill., Judge Wallace decided that he could not traverse the decision of the U. S. Commissioner, and that the negro must be remanded back to slavery. The U. S. Marshal and his assistants started with the negro last Friday evening at seven o'clock, for Louisville, where he will release him to Vallandingham. The case before the Mayor against Vallandingham, for kidnapping, has been dismissed. The excitement has been so great that some difficulty was apprehended at the cars when the Marshal took the negro aboard. No attempt at a rescue, however, was made.

The Craddock Murder Case.—Louisville, Dec. 4.—Commonwealth of Kentucky vs Miller and others. Primary examination closed. Seven persons accused by Miller of the murder of Craddock were discharged. Miller's testimony occupied two days. The defendants, save Miller, severally introduced testimony proving an alibi, and good character, also giving Miller a bad character, and showing him unworthy of belief. District Attorney Craig moved the commitment of Miller for perjury. The Judge replied that he was already held on the charge of murder by his own confession. Tremendous applause by the large crowd upon the discharge of parties implicated in the murder by Miller.

CITY ITEMS.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The regular meeting of the Council was not held last evening for want of a quorum.

As usual Andrews is rushing of Bellou's Pictorial, Flag, Nouvelette, as well as Saturday's New York and Boston dailies, at 63 and 13½ Clark street.

COMPLIMENTARY.—The new engine house of the Chicago and Milwaukee Railroad has been completed. It is a substantial structure, of Milwaukee brick, and will accomodate eight engines.

ELIHU BURRITT'S LECTURE TO-NIGHT.—The public should not forget to attend Elihu Burritt's lecture at Metropolitan Hall this evening. His subject is "Elements of Commerce and Commercial Education." The proceeds will be given to the indigent of this city.

DISCHARGED.—Frank, the young man arrested on suspicion of larceny of a $250 check on Greenebaum Bros., was discharged on Saturday last, the defence having shown that the defendant came honestly in possession o: the check, the thief being a man named Heckit, who is missing.

ENGINE COMPANY NO. 3.—At a regular meeting of Niagara Engine Co. No. 3, the following officers were elected:

E. P. Wood, Foreman; Geo. McCrag, 1st Assistant; Jas. J. Walsh, 2d Assistant; P. P. Wood, Secretary; G. McCrags, Treasurer; J. H. Kinzie, Jr. Steward.

STRAYING CATTLE.—A few days since a fine pair of fat oxen, worth $125, were stolen from a German named John Small, residing near the State Line of Indiana, by a man named Charles Menzel, a dealer in cattle, who sold them on Thursday to one Wm. Wolfe, a butcher on North Clark street, by whom one of them was slaughtered. Mr. Small came to this city on Friday, and by the aid of officer C. E. Smith, recovered the value of his property.

MR. SAXE'S LECTURE.—A fair audience greeted Mr. Saxe last evening. His poems, "The Press," was comfortably laughed over and warmly applauded. In addition to this entertainment, the lecturer recited a portion of an earlier production, "The Yankee," which was likewise received with applause.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The German Workingmen's Aid Association is organized to help the poor during the Winter. This Association is connected with a large number of workingmen in all businesses, who have nothing to do at the present time, viz: clerks, house and sign painters, carpenters and cabinet makers, shoemakers, cooks, confectioners, bakers, day-laborers, etc., etc. Business men in the city or country, in want of workingmen, please call on the Secretary of the Association, Mr. Gestave Obom, West Randolph street, south-west corner of Desplaines and Randolph, opposite the West Market Hall, third story. The Secretary has a large number of German girls, in want of employment. Ladies in the city or in the country, who are in want of a cooking or house girl, please give notice to Mr. Obom, in the above house. Letters from the country will be promptly attended to, in all cases without expense.

Railroads.

CHICAGO, ST. PAUL AND FOND DU LAC RAILROAD.

CHICAGO, ST. PAUL AND THE NORTH-WEST. Passengers leaving Chicago by this line at 8 o'clock, A. M., will arrive at Madison and Prairie du Chein in time for passengers to take the morning train of cars for St. Paul. Passengers leaving Chicago by the 5 o'clock P. M. train will reach Janesville, Madison, Prairie du Chien and Winona in time for breakfast next morning.

ST. PAUL DIRECT.

Passengers for all points on the Mississippi above Prairie du Chien will find this the most direct route. The wise and vigorous course pursued by the Bank of England has checked the alarm, restored confidence, relieved distress, and set the wheels of business again in motion, and the specie is coming through its accustomed channels. The Bank of France pursued a similar course, and with similar results. The rule adopted by the Bank of England was, a discount every good piece of paper presented. Millions of dollars were thus thrown into circulation—the crisis was met and the panic buried. How widely different the course of the New York and American Banks! In defiance of the Ohio Life and Trust Co. was the source of the unfortunate contraction. The two Governments was rigorously and recklessly followed in other Eastern and then in other cities, scattering ruin and distress among them. COMMERCIAL.

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE, } Monday Evening, December 7, 1857. }

The Liverpool markets of Nov. 20th were telegraphed from the foreign steamer Baltic to-day, but were not known to any extent before late this afternoon. The quotations were as "Flour firm; advanced 1s. Wheat firm; advanced 2d@3d. Corn quiet, prices nominal. London Money Market—Demand for money falling off, and rather easier. Consols at closed ¼. Provisions quiet." It is probable this news will somewhat strengthen the present weak Flour and Grain market. The weakness on change was fair to-day, though little business was transacted. Receipts are fair for the season, by rail. The weather is mild and roads very muddy, so that it must be utterly impossible for farmers to wagon any thing to the depots. Money matters are far from being better. Currency is getting very scarce; eastern exchange sells all the way from ¼@¾ per cent premium; we observed a sale of $4,000 at ¾; it having to be sold to obtain currency, premium advances.

The Michigan Central and Southern roads have reduced their rates on dressed Hogs, Mess Beef, Pork, Tallow, &c., from $1 W 100 lbs to 90.

The dressed Hog market is unfavorably affected by the warm and rainy weather. The scarcity of money prevents Commission Merchants from selling produce of any kind, except in a small way, and prices of everything are depressed. The following are quotations of to-day:

FLOUR—Nothing doing. There begins to be a prospect of a suspension of freight on many of the roads running east. Those immediately connected with this city, we are told, favor it, and are trying to in use action of the kind by their eastern connections, unless this be done, the Flour here will remain for the Lake vessels to carry next season.

WHEAT—Sales of a car load spring to mill, in bags, at 86c, one at 87c, and one at 90c; a few cars in bulk to store at 85c, and some at 85c, closing firm at this range, after steamer's news.

CORN—In good request at 42@43c for old, 39 56 lbs; new, 37½@38c in bags, 39 60 lbs.

OATS—Supply exceeds the demand at 32c in bags, delivered; sale of 300 bags [700 bus] at 34½@35c on track. Barley and Rye unchanged.

DRESSED HOGS—Sale of 150 head, averaging 160 lbs, at $4.70 @ 100; also 100 head, averaging 160, at $4.75. This is about the usual wholesale range, while good clean hogs retail freely at $5.

HIGHWINES—Sales of small parcels at 19½@20c 9 gallon.

COOPERAGE—Pork bbls dull at $1.10.

SEED—A small lot of clover on market to-day, held at $6 9 bu.

WOOD—At some of the yards, good beech and maple sells at $3 9 cord, and good slowly at this.

HIDES—Green, 3@3½c—strictly butcher's, for which 3c is paid; dry 6@8c. Receipts to-day 37,695 lbs by rail.

FRUIT—Green apples $1.50@2.50 9 bbl. Dried apples 2½@3c 9 lb. Prairie Chickens $2.00@2.50 9 doz.

EGGS—16c 9 dozen.

BUTTER—Common and inferior 10@12c; good and choice 16@20c.

POULTRY AND GAME—Dressed Chickens 10c each. Turkeys 6@7c 9 lb. Prairie Chickens $2.00@2.50 9 doz. Venison 6c 9 lb 100 lbs, in carcass; saddles 10c 9 lb.

Chicago Live Stock Market.

MONDAY EVENING, Dec. 7, 1857.

HORSES.—The market continues flat and inactive, with scarcely any stock on the market. A little demand has arisen, some parties buying come in from Wisconsin to buy, expecting horses to be cheap. A man from Iowa bought a number to-day, and takes them out by rail. We learn that there is little likely to be come in this trade before spring.

CATTLE.—The city butchers are selling but little beef from the stalls, money being scarce, and the market over-stocked with pork and poultry, mutton, and beef in the quarter, besides fish and other articles. Of course but few cattle sell under such circumstances. For choice cattle, however, good rates are paid: a city butcher offered $3.50 gross for 35 head of choice cattle at Myrick's, yesterday, but it was declined, and few if any sold yesterday; only about 100 were at Myrick's, and not a single head of cattle near-ly-terday from there. The full range of prices is $3.75 @3.50 Illicestpts by rail for the past week, 621 head.

HOGS.—Receipts for the week by rail 9s e 16,177 head. Upwards of 12 car loads were shipped east over the Michigan Southern. The market has experienced a considerable decline during the week, but a better feeling has arisen to-day and some higher prices paid. Yesterday (Sunday) sales were large, ranging from $5.00@5.20 gross weight. A new Yorker bought some 300 to-day, paying $5.20 gross, or about $4.60 net. A lot from Coles county, 2 car loads, or a little less than 200 head, averaging 240, also sold for the east at $5.05 gross. Another lot sold at $5.40, and another at $5.35. To-day a car of heavy was made at as high as $4.75.

SHEEP.—Although many passed through the city, very little was sold here as good orders, and the $3@3.50 9 100 lbs net weight for good fat sheep; the range is $2@3.20, but most go at the latter figure. To-day, 40 head, from a flock of 120, sold at $2 9 head, or about $2.20 9 100 lbs gross. Very few have been in market on the days of the week. Cattle are expected on Thursday, and another on Friday.

LAMBS.—Good ones are $1.50 each, and Lambs and now nearly as large as old Sheep.

LAKE SHORE RAILROAD RECEIPTS AND SHIPMENTS FOR THE WEEK ENDING SUNDAY MORNING DEC. 7TH, 1857.

Received by Lake Shore Railroad and by Rev weight—some a less made by the head.

Sheep—Sold by live weight and by the head.

Swine—Sold by live weight or estimated net weight.

Cows and Calves generally sold by the head.

Markets for wool and hary been pretty brisk in the Hog trade; but owing to the enormous amount received, they have declined in price from ¼c to ¼ of a dollar 9wt. However, the market is pretty well cleared this morning, and prices are firmer, now, at about 4¾@5c for the various qualities and grades (84 9 cwt.) in the course of two or three days. Sales during the week of 1,300 Hogs, from $4.60@5c to 84 9 cwt. Total amount of Hogs rec'd for week ending to-day, 21,426, of which our following quotations will show 2,852 shipped and the left over.

Cattle remain about the same as last week's quotations, rather dull, with but very little demand, except for extraordinary good. Sales 440 head of cattle, from $4.00@5c to 7¾ A few sheep sold for $3@3½, and about 80 left over.

No Sheep or Cows or Calves on the market.

Meeting of the Thirty-fifth Congress—First Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—The weather here, today is charming. Dense crowds in the galleries, and other portions of the capitol, and the greetings between the members and friends are pleasant and exciting.

SENATE.

Fifty Senators were present when the body was called to order by the Secretary, who read a letter from the Vice-President, stating that he would not be able to reach Washington by the commencement of the Session.

On motion of Mr. Benjamin, a resolution was adopted, that the oath presented by the Constitution be administered to the new Senators by Mr. Bright, the oldest member present. Andrew Johnson, of Tenn., and Daniel Clark, of N. H. took their seats, and the Senate then proceeded to ballot for President, pro tem. Hon. Benjamin Fitzpatrick, of Ala., was elected, and returned thanks for the honor conferred on him.

The usual resolutions to inform the President that the Senate was organized and in readiness for business, were then adopted, and the Senate went into executive session—confirmed Geo. W. Bowman, editor of the Bedford, Pa., Gazette, as Superintendent of Public Printing.

The Senate adjourned without transacting any other business.

HOUSE.

On call of the roll at 12 o'clock, 222 members answered to their names, and a quorum having thus been ascertained to be present, the House proceeded to the election of Speaker. James L. Orr, of South Carolina, was nominated by Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, and Hon. Galusha A. Grow, of Penn., by Mr. Banks, with the following result:—Orr, 125; Grow, 84; scattering, 13. Mr. Orr was declared elected.

The announciation of the result was greeted with applause. The clerk appointed Messrs. Stephens of Georgia, and Banks of Mass., a committee to conduct Mr. Orr to the chair. The oath was administered by Mr. Giddings. On receiving it Mr. Orr expressed thanks for the honor conferred on him. Said the delicate and responsible duties of the chair would be comparatively light if he should be so fortunate as to secure the cordial co-operation of the members in dispatching business and upholding the dignity of the House.

He promised to administer rules which may be adopted with firmness and impartiality. The great business confided to them admonished them to cultivate a patriotism as expansive as the confederation itself. He cherished the hope that business would be transacted to promote the interest and happiness of the entire people; that the Constitution would be maintained in its integrity; and that wise legislation would quicken the greatness and glory of our common country.

The members were then sworn, advancing by delegations for that purpose.

On motion of Mr. Clingman, the rules of the last House were adopted till otherwise ordered, with a proviso as to the 23d rule, that whenever any Committee shall occupy the morning hours two days, it shall be in order for such Committee to report further until other Committees shall have been called in turn. Mr. Clingman alluded to the fact that the sessions monopolized the morning hours, compelling the other Committees to rely on the courtesy of the House to make reports.

Mr. Florence gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill for the entire suppression of all bank notes as currency, or of bank notes of a less denomination than $100 as a circulation in the District of Columbia. Adjourned.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Baltic.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The steamship Baltic, from Liverpool at 2 P. M., on the 25th of November, arrived at 11 this morning, with 70 passengers and £9,000 sterling on freight.

In London on Saturday the recovery of the mercantile confidence made further progress, notwithstanding the serious failure of the Bank returns. Loans on Government securities were readily obtainable for short periods at lower rates. £400,000 of Australian gold was sold to the bank during the day on Monday, and the line of improvement was more distinct than any time since the first turn became observable. There was a continued absence of further failures and an additional amount of bullion of £160,000 was taken to the bank. On the stock exchange there was an increased supply of money and short loans were obtainable on government securities at seven per cent—at the bank the demand was less heavy.

The Times concludes the panic has passed entirely away.

Heavy failures at Hamburgh are reported, including Villberg & Crener in the Swedish trade, with liabilities of £1,000,000. F. Blase & Schomburgh, liabilities not stated.

From Bremen the suspensions were reported of H. Overleck & Sassenburg, and Meyer, liabilities in each case £20,000.

At Smyrna, Topuse & Co. had suspended. Liabilities £40,000.

The Times' city article on Tuesday evening notes a steady flow of bullion to the bank. A better feeling prevails, although some additional failures have occasioned regret. In the stock exchange money was readily obtainable at 6a7 per cent. The weekly returns of the bank are henceforth likely to show a considerable improvement.

In the discount market there were some signs of relaxation. The gold taken to the bank within the week amounted to £930,000.

The funds were buoyant, and consols closed at 89¾ for money, and 90a90¾ for account.

The failures of the day were Herman Sillern & Co.; liabilities heavy. Carr, Josling & Co., in the north of Europe trade; liabilities £300,000. Alexander Hantz, colonial produce dealer; liabilities large. All of London. Pennington & Marshall, American provision dealers, Liverpool, and Jonathan Battonley Skinner, Bradford.

A despatch from Hamburg announces the formation of the Discount Guarantee Society, with ten million marks Banco capital, the object of which is to relieve the commercial distress. The whole amount was subscribed in four hours. Rumors were current of a probable funding of the exchequer bills.

The London papers of Wednesday report sales of Illinois Central shares, on the previous day, at 13¼14 discount; do 7 per cent. bonds 75a77. New York Central shares 73. Erie 3d mortgage bonds 66.

Generals Wilson and Havelock are to be raised to the dignity of Baronets.

A boiler explosion at a cotton warp factory in Huddersfield had killed nine persons and wounded many others.

FRANCE.

Mr. Fould, Minister of State, was on a visit to London, supposed to have reference to the financial crisis and the situation of the Bank of France, and to confer with Lord Palmerston in reference to the difficulties of the Danish Principalities.

The Courrier Debats Rhine announces that the headquarters of an English recruiting establishment will be opened at Strasburg on the 1st of December.

The Bank of France was gaining specie.

A meeting of Paris distillers had memorialized the government to raise the import duty on foreign liquors, on the ground that they cannot compete with foreigners. The government replied that it would be decided by an inquiry.

RUSSIA.

Letters from St. Petersburg report that the financial crisis was beginning sensibly to affect Russia. Gold had become very scarce. Exchange on London had fallen.

AUSTRIA.

Letters from Vienna report a continuance of the financial and commercial crisis. The prices of raw produce declined daily, and money was so scarce that manufactured goods found but few wholesale purchases.

A dispatch from Stockholm announces the formation of a society of credit and mutual support, and to maintain the public credit. The subscription amounted to $4,000,000.

Virginia Legislature.

RICHMOND, Dec. 7.—The Legislature organized to-day by the election of most of last year's officers. Gov. Wise sent in four messages, unprecedentedly long and largely devoted to Banks and Banking.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. Dec. 7.—Hon. Ansel Phelps, Jr., Dem., was re-elected mayor of this city to-day, by 150 majority.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Col. Richardson, of Illinois, has been formally tendered the Governorship of Nebraska.

The entire Globe of to-day and supplement is occupied with an exposition of alleged frauds in the purchase of books during the last Congress. The publication has produced much sensation, particularly about the Capitol.

In the Court of Claims to-day Judges Scarborough and Blackford delivered opinions adverse to the claimant of the brig General Armstrong.

Immediately after the House adjourned, hundreds of men crowded on the door-keeper, clamoring for situations. The Post Master was similarly assailed. The Clerk, too, was overwhelmed with applications.

The Republicans in caucus this morning renominated George M. Weston, editor the Republic, for printer.

The Lemmon Slave Case.

NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—The celebrated Lemmon Slave Case was decided in the Supreme Court to-day. The former decision of Judge Paine was sustained, and the slaves declared to be free, thus denying the right of transit with slaves through this State; Judge Roosevelt dissenting.

BOSTON, Dec. 7.—An investigation was held to-day on the affairs of the Middlesex Mills as connected with the failure of the Lawrence Stone & Company, and after much discussion a report was adopted, appointing a committee of five with full power to investigate the affairs of the Company, and determine whether the work of the Mills was to be continued, and to report at a meeting of the stockholders within 30 days.

Preparing to Slide.

It has passed into a general remark that no one party can hold both DOUGLAS and WENTWORTH at the same time. They are bound to be opposite each other. JOHN went against the repeal of the Missouri Compromise because STEPHEN went for it. For a time one of them was a Nebraska Democrat—the other an anti-Nebraska Democrat. After DOUGLAS made up his mind to support BUCHANAN'S nomination WENTWORTH made up his to support FREMONT'S nomination. The little giant upheld the Cincinnati platform, and per contra, Long JOHN the Philadelphia platform, in order to be at antipodes. The principles or candidates were nothing, provided they brought him into opposition with his enemy—that was the essential consideration. Like Shanghai and Bantam roosters they are continually sparring. When STEPHEN got the Irish sway from JOHN, which was the unkindest cut of all, the latter swore to be revenged.

The present dispute between DOUGLAS and BUCHANAN, slight as it is, on the Kansas imbroglio, has changed despair into hope in JOHN'S breast, that he may get safely back into the bosom of the Irish Democracy. He has commenced his work of purgation and conciliation by voluntarily defending BUCHANAN and his infamous policy. Day by day he fills his paper with long articles from the Washington Union, whose positions and arguments he sustains and praises in leading editorials. And for the purpose of giving emphasis to his puffs of BUCHANAN and the brazen sophistries of the Union, he prints them twice in the Democrat.

The eulogies of the Mayor, are dressed in cunning language, and so shaped that in the event of a final rupture between DOUGLAS and BUCHANAN, they can be claimed as sincere and in good faith; but should the quarrel be healed up then he can pretend that his puffs were ironical and only written to annoy DOUGLAS. In other words like the sportsman, he shoots to hit if the game should be a buck, but to miss if proves only to be a calf.

Should the breach between DOUGLAS and the Administration sufficiently widen to separate them and lead to a division in the party it is evidently the intention of the Mayor to bolt from the Republicans and place himself at the head of the followers of BUCHANAN in Illinois and become the dispenser of Government patronage for this section of the West. As a matter of course, he would quickly displace the present batch of DOUGLAS appointees and fill their places with his old friends and tools, the Snowhooks, Conleys, McCarthys, Helmuths, &c. He longs for the flesh pots of Egypt, and in the Republican party he feels like a shark out of water. He yearns to be back in his native element among the "dead rabbit" democracy. If DOUGLAS leaves the Administration, WENTWORTH will leave the Republicans, and join BUCHANAN & Co. No editor who is sincerely a Republican at heart could fill his paper day after day, with long editorials justifying and defending the Administration in its tyrannical course towards Kansas, and copy article after article from the Washington Union in support of Southern oppression. Such conduct can not be explained away as intended merely for fun. Neither can a paper lay much claim to Republicanism which declares, as does the Democrat, that "according to the principles of the Nebraska bill"—

"The Union takes the correct view of the question, and sustains its position triumphantly. So much for the principle of the Nebraska bill has been violated, legally or technically, by the Constitutional Convention of Kansas. On the contrary, it has adhered to the letter of the law in every respect, and done framed a Constitution, which Judge DOUGLAS can give no valid reasons for objecting to."

This is strange language for a paper pretending to be an exponent of Republican sentiment and opinion. But the following, from the same sheet, goes the whole Pro-Slavery figure—hoof, hide and horns:

"The present Constitution submits the slavery question to the people, and that is the only question that has been in dispute in Kansas from the passage of the territorial act to the present time. If there be others, we would like to know what it is. Now, it is not at all customary (nor is it a Democratic principle) for territorial constitutions to be submitted to the people. Territories have come in as States without such submission. Indeed, it is only where some question is involved, on which the people are very much agitated, this submission would appear necessary. In the case of Kansas, as will be seen, the very and only question on which there has been a division of sentiment, has been submitted fairly and squarely."

A Republican who can deliberately talk in this style, is preparing to step out of the Republican party as soon as he can discover an "opening" to let him into the Administration ranks.

After reading the article from which the above extracts are taken we were not surprised to find the following announcement in another column of the same paper:

"The friends of James Buchanan are making temporary arrangements to start, from this office a newspaper, until they can procure type and presses of their own. It is expected to be issued about the 1st of January, and will contain the list of letters for the month."

Comment is unnecessary. Prepare to see Long John slide into the administration ranks—if they will receive him. He is now lustily knocking at the door for admission.

Slavery in the Free States—A Fearful Gag.

In an article which we print below, the Washington Union administers a horrible gag to the Chicago Times, on the subject of slavery and its prospective introduction into the Free States. Our readers will remember that the Union lately advanced the doctrine that "all the laws, whether organic or otherwise, which prohibit a citizen of one State from settling in another, and bringing his slave property with him, and most especially declaring it forfeited, are direct violations of the original intention of the government." The Times replied in a forcible article rejecting all that kind of Democracy. The Union now comes back taking an imperceptible retrograde movement. It splits hairs on the words "temporary" and "permanent," declaring that slaveholders may drive gangs of their chattels into the Free States for temporary settlement without having their right of property in said chattels impaired. Temporary settlement may indeed mean settlement for one year or half a dozen. If the definition could be accurately fixed by any sort of legislation or jurisprudence, it would not prevent the conversion of the whole Free State border from New Jersey to Kansas into thriving plantations and mulatto factories. Thus much the Union forces upon the Northern Democracy at the point of the Dred Scott decision, "which," says the central organ, "determined that the "owner of a slave does not lose the title to his "property by carrying him into a State where "laws prohibit the existence of slavery." The Union is perfectly logical, and we are curious to know how the Times will controvert the doctrine in its new phase. If the Time endorses the Dred Scott decision it cannot controvert it at all; and practically it makes no difference whether Illinois is turned over to the slave drivers temporarily or permanently. These terms are the language of "juggling fiends," as the Times knows, and the Union knows, and Judge FAREY knows. "Heads I win; tails you lose."

Perhaps the most heartless part of this gag is the cool conceit with which the Union thrusts its dogma into the throat of the Times. It pretends to be "disarming one of the heroes of "Free Soilism." The Union article is as follows:

The Chicago Times, and some one or two other papers of like pretension to find fault with the Union, and grow indignant over one of our late editorials, because, as they interpret it, we advance a novel and alarming doctrine as to the extension of slavery into the Free States. In this article one of the heroes of Free Soilism, we contend, has contradicted principles recognized in the Dred Scott case, which declared the right of the owner of a slave (and not of the State) to hold property by carrying him into a State whose laws prohibit the existence of slavery. In stating this principle, our language may have been less guarded than it should have been, but we had supposed the principle of Scott vs. Sanford so firmly settled as to need no argument to establish it. We, therefore, had no other purpose than to confront Free-Soilism with a great principle solemnly settled by the highest tribunal known to our Government. It was not meant by us that the owner of a slave could carry him into a Free State and there settle permanently, and by that means establish slavery in such Free State contrary to its laws. Whatever power the State might have to refuse the contract by which the owner in such case would hold his title to his property, the fact of his settling permanently in a State whose laws prohibited slavery would be deemed conclusive of his purpose to abide by its laws. The result, however, is entirely different when the settlement in a Free State is only temporary. In such case it is well settled that his title is not affected, but is unimpaired on his return to a State where slavery is recognized by its laws. This conclusion is a legitimate and necessary deduction from the fact that the Constitution of the United States recognizes and guarantees the title to property in slaves.

"A Self Evident Fact" Exploded.

We must have a paper currency. It is indispensable. There is not gold and silver enough to represent the value of our properties, and the increase of gold and silver does not keep pace with the increase of those values. The value of the aggregate property of the United States, for instance, has increased at the rate of a hundred million of dollars, and of this fifty million or more than one-half has been sent out of the country to pay for foreign indebtedness or for importations attracted thither by the Free Trade system; and thus we are left with an actual increase of about twenty-five millions of specie, to represent the increase of four times that amount in the values of our property. Here, then, we lack just seventy-five millions of dollars in specie to represent the aggregate increase in value of our property during the year in the shape of manufactures, agricultural productions, lands, buildings, general improvements, &c. These values must be represented in some way, and there not being gold and silver enough to answer the purpose, we hold that we must have some kind of a paper representation of these values.

That point is clear. It being a self-evident fact that every dollar's worth of property, must have its dollar to represent it.—Chicago Journal.

The above is the gist of an argument of the Journal against a retrenchment of paper currency, advocated by the TRIBUNE. It is very evident the writer has not consumed much of his precious time in the study of political economy—particularly that branch referring to the currency. The Journal's "self evident fact" is simply a ridiculous untruth. So far from the assertion being true that "every dollar's worth of property must have its dollar to represent it," there has been no time in the history of the United States when the money in circulation would have paid six per cent. interest on the value of the property in the country. Every dollar in the United States, would not purchase the property in the State of Illinois alone, even upon a two-thirds valuation. The whole circulating medium in this State would not buy the real and personal property of Lake street!

The statement in the Journal that the "increase of currency must keep pace dollar for dollar with the increase of the value of property," is not only supremely absurd, but painfully ridiculous. The soundest American statisticians estimate the amount of money required to do the business of the country at eight dollars per inhabitant. Some place it at six, and others as high as ten dollars per head. The total quantity of bank notes and coin in circulation on the 1st of July, 1857, was $300,000,000, and it is notorious that the currency was unduly and dangerously inflated

The average amount of property owned by each inhabitant in the United States, according to the most careful estimates, is about three hundred and fifty dollars, or two thousand dollars per family of six persons. The aggregate property of the United States is computed to be worth from eight to nine thousand millions of dollars; and that of Illinois between six and seven hundred millions. The currency in Illinois does not certainly exceed eight millions, and probably falls below seven. The New England and Eastern States require more money per inhabitant than the Western and Southern States, because they are more largely engaged in manufactures and commerce.

It may be laid down as a safe standard that the proportion between real and personal property and circulating medium is one dollar of the former to three cents of the latter; in other words, that the amount of money is less than one thirtieth of the property in the country.

Ten dollars per head is sixty dollars per family. Who believes that the families of Chicago will average sixty dollars of cash in possession or deposit? Where one family has $1,000 of ready cash in possession, there are a score which have not 1,000 cents. And the same rule holds good all over the land. People will laugh heartily at the Journal's idea that there is as much money as property in the country, and will be apt to ask, Who has it? and, where do they keep it? The Journal estimates the yearly increase of the aggregate value of property at one hundred millions, and the specie increase at twenty-five millions. Both statements are widely erroneous. Property increases in value faster than population by at least one-third. The latter increases about three and a half per cent. per year, and the former a little less than five per cent., taking the last twenty years as a basis. The annual increase of property is about four hundred millions, and of specie twelve millions, and these are proper proportions.

The high respect we entertain for the Journal makes us feel sensations of regret and chagrin that it should have made such an exposure of its ignorance on a subject of so much importance. For its future guidance let it write upon the tablets of its memory, "that the point "is clear, it being a self-evident fact that every "dollar's worth of property should have its "three cents to represent it." More makes an inflated money market, less a stringent one.

Tuckerman, the Railroad Defaulter and Mail Robber.!

The William S. Tuckerman, who has been detected in grievous assaults upon the mails of the Sunday night train between New York and Boston, is the late treasurer of the Eastern (Boston and Portland) railroad, whose funds he stole and whose stock he over-issued to the aggregate amount of about $200,000. He was lately convicted for one of the specific offences that made up this grand fraud, but his counsel were seeking to get him a new trial, and meantime he was out on bail, the amount of $16,000.

The Sunday night trains between Boston and New York, through Springfield, offer favorable opportunities for depredation by those whose "idiosyncracies" lead them into the business of mail robbing, as they are run altogether at night, carry very few passengers, and no mail agent to accompany them. Tuckerman had been a frequent passenger upon this train for some weeks previous, and becoming well acquainted with the baggage master, had free access to the baggage car in which the mails were deposited, and watching favorable opportunities would transfer a mail bag into a large, heavy trunk, which he always carried. At present, the amount he has realized by his plunderings is not supposed to exceed $1,000, as most of the mittances he got possession of, were checks and drafts, which could not be made available without pretty sure discovery.

The Boston Herald has the following particulars of Tuckerman's detection and arrest:

"During the last five or six weeks, several mails have been missed, and the detectives in the service of the postal department were put upon the alert. On Sunday, the 23d ult., Mr. Holbrook, special agent, accompanied by another gentleman, took passage in the night train to detect, if possible, the depredator of the mails. Mr. Holbrook and his companion took their seats in the baggage car, where the mails are carried, and remained there in darkness until the train reached Springfield. The Boston train had arrived ten minutes previously, and while they were sitting in ambush, a gentleman came into the car and lighted some matches. This gentleman was Mr. W. S. Tuckerman, who had come upon the train from New York.

"Tuckerman was taking a good look at the mail bags when he discovered the two gentlemen in the car. He then pulled out a cigar, and made a show of having entered the car to indulge in a comfortable smoke. Mr. Holbrook immediately made a remark about the boy not returning with matches, and stepped up to Tuckerman and asked him for a light, thereby preventing any suspicion that he was on the lookout for mail robbers. Mr. Holbrook proceeded in the train toward Boston, but finding that Tuckerman had taken the opposite train at Springfield and gone to New York, he stopped at Worcester, and took the first train back the next morning.

"On that Sunday night the letter bag from this city to New York was stolen, and no doubt was left in the minds of them conversant with the facts, that Tuckerman was the robber.

"Arrangements were made on Sunday last at both ends of the route, to arrest Tuckerman should he make another grab at the mails. Tuckerman was here on Sunday—was in the post office sometime during the day. He went to New York on the mail train and somebody else accompanied the locomotive to watch his proceedings. On the arrival of the cars at New Haven, he was detected in stealing a mail bag, and was promptly arrested."

His uniform and gentlemanly deportment and very respectable appearance, had prevented any suspicions among the persons having charge of the train as to his motives for riding in the baggage car.

The prisoner was brought before the United States Commissioner, C. R. Ingersoll, at New Haven, and in default of $20,000 bail was committed for examination, which was to have taken place on Saturday.

Tuckerman is about 35 years of age, of gentlemanly and prepossessing manners, and has an estimable wife residing in New York city. He is very much overcome by his detection, and appears to be nearly broken down. The Boston Traveller says:

It was but a few days ago that the exceptions to his conviction in the Municipal Court, on the charge of embezzlement, were argued, Rufus Choate appearing in his behalf. It was anticipated that the Supreme Court would, in a few weeks, give a decision in the case, which would either throw out the testimony of his confessions, thus giving him the chance of a new trial, or confirm the ruling of the court below, which would render him liable to a sentence of confinement in the State Prison.

The Traveller also says:

"All the facts in regard to the case which have come to light, show that his operations have been carried on for several months, as the numerous advertisements in the papers of the loss of notes, drafts, &c., abundantly testify. Officers of the South Boston police state that he has been noticed of late passing to and from his residence in that section of the city with the trunk in his hand found in his possession when arrested. His head-quarters were, however, it is stated, in New York city. Great anxiety is manifested in mercantile circles to learn the fate of the large amount of valuable documents which have fallen into his possession. We understand that he sent a pressing message to a lawyer of the city yesterday, to come and have an interview with him."

The Springfield Republican, of Friday, says it is now said Tuckerman will not probably be examined till week after next. Mrs. Tuckerman, the wife of the accused, has gone from New York to New Haven, to be near her husband. It is said that letters found upon his person and articles found in his room at the Florence Hotel, New York, were undoubtedly taken from the purloined mails. A short time since, a boy who worked for Mr. Tuckerman as office boy in New York, came into the office and saw Mr. T. at work with a bag. He (Mr. T.) took the bag and emptied its contents on the floor, when the boy remarked "you have got a large mail, Mr. Tuckerman," to which he replied "yes." The boy then saw him open the letters, read them and throw them open into the fire. He next cut the bag in pieces and burnt that also. The boy thought nothing of it until he had left the employment of Tuckerman for robbing the mails, when he immediately came forward and informed the superintendent of the New York and New Haven Railroad.

How and Where are Taxes to be Paid?

Editors Tribune:—As the time for the payment of taxes is at hand, will you be so good as to inform resident property holders when and where to pay the annual assessments for the support of all sorts of government.

Living as I do in the North Division, I have been instructed to go and—

1st. Pay street tax of $1.50 to the Collector who lives somewhere in the West Division.

2d. Personal tax; a Collector is now canvassing the city, and his office is in the street.

3d. City tax on property to the Collector for the Town of North, South and West Chicago according to the situation of the property.

4th. County and State taxes, to the Collector of the County and State taxes; a separate Collector is to be found in each of the the three divisions of the city.

5th. Special assessments; a separate officer has charge of these, and he is industriously engaged in hunting up delinquents.

6th. A month hence pay the County and State taxes to the County Treasurer.

7th. A month hence pay city taxes to the City Treasurer.

8th. In all cases look on the books at their different offices, and see that your taxes paid are so entered on the books; for it has frequently happened that after taxes have been paid and receipts given, the property has been subsequently advertised and sold as delinquent.

9th. The city, county, and State taxes, delinquent, are advertised in different papers. Subscribe for and read all the papers diligently.

10th. Read the Council proceedings weekly, and see what local improvements and assessments are made, and see when your property is encumbered thereby.

11th. Notwithstanding your property is not improved, look out for water commissioners, sewerage commissioners, planking, grading, sidewalk improvements, and gas companies.

12th. Learn the time of the year when taxes are due and payable, and when it may be said you do not owe any taxes.

So far as we are qualified to answer, our correspondent has replied to his own questions with tolerable accuracy. It is admitted on all hands, that a resident of Chicago must be a man of uncommon activity, energy and intelligence, if he keeps all his taxes paid, and paid to the right person. If some lobbies of the Court House, who happens to be learned in this occult science, will prepare us a schedule of answers to the above inquiries, we will print it for the general information. Every male adult in the city should have one pasted in his hat.

Douglas and the South.

(For the Chicago Tribune.)

Many of Senator Douglas' friends think his star is in the ascendant, because Southerners resident here generally talk in favor of submitting the constitution of Kansas to the people. They think Northern Democrats are generally with him, and they lay the flattering unction to their souls, that because those Southerners, from living in the North and in constant intercourse with Republicans, have been forced to take in a little light, that therefore all is right with Douglas, at the South as well as in the North.

Wait a little. Already it is announced, by wise politicians, that the South will be an unit upon this Kansas question. Many of the leading Democratic politicians and papers in the North, who were fierce against the Kansas iniquity, already are being fast whipped into the traces of the administration, and those sons of the South, so valorous for "popular sovereignty," will have to back water, and acknowledge that somehow they had misunderstood the position of affairs, and—the south is right any how.

S.

SUICIDE BY A YOUNG LADY.—On Sunday afternoon, 29th ult., Miss Olean Taylor, a young lady, residing at New Albany, Ohio, about fourteen miles from Columbus, committed suicide by hanging herself in her room. Her parents had left her to take care of her younger brothers and sisters, while they attended church, and shortly after their departure, she gave the children permission to visit a neighboring family. When her parents returned, search was made for her and she was found in her room, dead, having used a leather strap by tying it to the bed post and around her neck. Miss Taylor was about twenty-two years of age, beautiful and highly accomplished, the daughter of wealthy parents, and possessed of a large fortune in her own right. On Monday night the 23d ult., she attended a ball at Ambos Hall in Columbus, and it is said by those who knew her, that she was unusually joyous. No cause is assigned for her rashness.

PERSONAL.—We learn that we were in error in ascribing the political article in the last Atlantic Monthly to Mr. Parke Godwin. The writer is not known.

It is reported that Madame Lola Montes will shortly enter the matrimonial state again. Her prospective husband is said by the newspapers to be a foreign gentleman of rank and wealth.

SENTENCE OF A MAIL ROBBER.—In the United States Court of Indiana, at Indianapolis, Ecker, formerly postmaster at Jasper, plead guilty to robbing the mail, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. A letter from Germany, containing drafts was taken out of the mail, and the contents appropriated to his own use. He is quite a young man, and had hitherto borne a good reputation.

.... Thomas Fagan, a prominent citizen of Sheboygan, committed suicide a few days since, by hanging himself. Financial embarrassments were probably the cause of the act.

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Correspondence of the Chicago Tribune.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7, 1857.

The architect of the Nebraska bill will arrive here this evening. Douglas comes to survey the work of his hands in a new place. His Nebraska bill, which was to settle the slavery question, and take it out of Congress, has bred a civil war, caused the loss of innumerable lives, and now, after a fair trial of three and a half years, meets him at the threshold of the second Congress after its passage, with a party dissevered and a country convulsed. His Utah bill, of whose paternity he also boasted, has also returned to plague its inventor with a political and religious war, which has already cost the country many millions of dollars, and what number of lives we hate yet to learn. For these fruits of his statesmanship, he has yet to settle with his constituents; but at present he has to do with his party. The Democracy is divided into two factions over the Kansas issue. Governor Walker does not scruple to censure the proceedings of the Convention in their attempt to force a pro-slavery Constitution upon the people without submitting it to their vote, as an outrage not less base than the forging of the returns which he rejected. The Governor's brother, an army officer, everywhere and in all companies, denounces the fellows engaged in the pro-slavery agitation in Kansas as a set of graceless and characterless scoundrels, just the kind of men to perpetrate the villainies which have been committed there in their behalf. It is said that Senator Douglas, in the main, concurs with these gentlemen as to the later developments in Kansas. Innocent and simple minded man that he is, he had no idea till within these three weeks past, what kind of instruments he and his party were working with in Kansas. But now they have revealed themselves, and he repudiates them. This is what is now said of your senior Senator; and whether it is true or not, the Democracy is splitting into factions over these things. Still it is doubtful, and must for some time remain so, what Douglas and his personal partizans will do.

For the present there is an apparent and professed agreement between Douglas and Walker.—They take exactly the same view of the condition of affairs in Kansas, and agree as to the remedy—I infer this from what Governor Walker has personally assured me and others, and what the telegraph reports as to the sentiments of Mr. Douglas. Gov. Walker says it is for the Free State men to repudiate any connection whatever with the Kansas fraud, and let its authors and abettors do what they will with it. So says Douglas. The Governor says Congress will not touch the unclean thing. So say the friends of Douglas, now here, speaking, it is presumed, by his authority. And in conclusion, Governor Walker, believes that the true solution of the difficulty is the passage by Congress of an enabling act, a bill, that is, which totally ignoring the trick of the Lecomptonites, shall authorize and enable the people of Kansas to form a constitution and State government. That is said to be Judge Douglas' position; but as it would certainly bring him into conflict with the South, the report may be doubted. But this was the expected when the Judge adopted the amendment of 1856. He, then under the patronage of Toombs, brought in an enabling act, which the majority in the House would not accept because it placed all the power in the hands of Pierce and Shannon and their subordinate ruffians. Circumstances are now changed, Pierce and Shannon are gone, and if Buchanan tolerates Walker, and Walker continues honest, an enabling act will operate well. This proceeding would supercede the Topeka Constitution for a time, but that very instrument would doubtless be adopted under the enabling act. But in the meantime party exigencies are to be met The spoils are to be secured and divided. The House is to be organized. The causes is to be held to-morrow night. If Douglas is sincere in opposing the Lecompton fraud, he must prevent the House falling into the hands of the conspirators, who concocted and now approve it, for they intend to give full effect to the villainy. No one knows better than Mr. Douglas that with Orr for Speaker, the committees and other machinery would be so arranged as to render assistance hopeless. If, then, Orr be nominated with the aid of the Douglas votes, the surrender to the South will be complete.

It is proposed to offer in caucus a resolution declaring the right of the people of Kansas to form their own Constitution. It will, of course, produce intense excitement. It may be shuffled out of sight, or scuttled, but, if passed, it will break up the Convention, and throw the choice of officers upon the House without a caucus nomination. If no scuttle can be got over, Orr will be elected Speaker, and Allen, of Illinois, Clerk, on Monday. If a row should arise, we may be three weeks or three months without organization.

The message, of course, is ready. Mr. Buchanan is as punctual, neat, and trim about such matter as an old maid. He will talk about slavery in the view of his letter to Silliman. He will discourse upon the finances, the tariff, and the currency. As all ideas of State rights have been broken down, it is likely enough that a heavy tax on bank bills will be recommended, with the object of abolishing State banks. The doctrine of the unconstitutionality of paper money, in any form, will, perhaps, be mooted. Something of this sort is necessary to prevent the revival of the dispute upon slavery, which Mr. Buchanan declared, in his speech at Baltimore, in May, 1856, to have been settled by the Nebraska bill.

Mirabeau B. Lamar, the Texan filibuster, has just been appointed Minister to Nicaragua. His first act will probably be to recognize Walker as the government. This is a proof of the sincerity of the Administration in its opposition to filibustering.

The President has judiciously kept back the most of the appointments. He holds in his hands some thousands of offices and many millions of dollars, and if he cannot carry through anything for the advancement of slavery which he understands, the force of the elements he works with has been overestimated. Treasury Estimates for the Year Ending June 30, 1859.

[Washington Correspondence of the N. Y. Herald.]

I send you in advance the following important statement from the Treasury Department:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Nov. 25, 1857.

SIR—Agreeably to the joint resolution of Congress of the 7th January, 1846, I have the honor to transmit for the House of Representatives printed estimates of the appropriations proposed to be made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1859, viz:

CIVIL LIST.
Foreign intercourse and miscellaneous, including the expenses of collecting the revenues from sales of public lands, public buildings and expenses of surveys	$9,000,000 00
To supply deficiencies in the revenues of the General Post Office	3,854,900 00
Pensions	760,000 00
Indian Department	1,847,109 49
Army proper, &c., including armed vessels, Mexico, &c.	14,076,619 49
Military Academy	182,000 00
Fortifications, ordnance, &c.	2,483,112 00
Naval establishment	12,000,000 00
Steam mail service	900,000 00
Total	$50,313,940 49

To the estimates are added statements showing, first—Appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1858, made by former acts of Congress, of a specific and definite character, as follows:

Miscellaneous, including expenses of collecting Revenue from Customs	$4,309,910 14
Consular, diplomatic, and appeal Post Office for mail service	700,000 00
Arming and equipping militia	200,000 00
Civilization of Indians	10,000 00
Interest on public debt	1,440,128 33
Total	$7,150,038 47

Second—Existing appropriations not required for the service of the present fiscal year, and which may be applied to the service of the year ending June 30, 1859, as follows:

CIVIL LIST.
Foreign intercourse and miscellaneous	$7,350,624 28
Interior Department—Pensions and Indians	1,341,670 00
War Department	2,000,000 00
Navy Department	4,264,474 99
Total	$16,956,669 28
Grand total	$74,464,788 77

There is also a statement of the several appropriations which may be carried to the surplus fund, amounting to $566,031 26.

I am very respectfully you obedient servant,

HOWELL COBB, Sec'y of the Treasury.

New Railroad Loans.

The proposal for a new loan advertised by the Illinois Central Railroad Company is a rather bold operation, in the present financial condition of the world. They offer no security or pledge whatever, all the road and land of the company being already mortgaged. It also contemplates an increase of a debt which already is nearly four times the amount of its paid up stock. The bonded debt of this company is $20,000,000; the floating debt $3,250,000. The stock about $6,000,000, being only $40 per share on 170,000 shares, and leaving 85,000 shares of "optional rights" outstanding. Who ever heard before of a company under protest, with more than half of its capital stock not paid, asking for a loan?

It is true the Michigan Central have negotiated a new loan, but unlike the Illinois Central, they had no stock that was assessable, while they had a large amount of stock paid up that was a security for a bonded debt. The fact is, the Illinois road has too little capital and too much debt. The time has come, we think, when this sort of juggling must have an end. The stockholders of that road must now do what they ought to have done long ago—put up their capital.—N. Y. Post, 4th.

SUICIDE.—M. Mobley, one of the principal bankers of Dubuque, Iowa, suspended on the 4th. Mr. Mobley, in a card, says that his assets exceed his liabilities full $100,000, and that every creditor shall be paid, principal and interest.

The Progress of the War.

FORNEY has got his back up. His paper, the Press, of December 4th, pours a broadside of a column and a half into the Administration organ at Washington, denouncing its "insolent and dictatorial articles," its censures of the supporters of Walker, and its attempt [The italics are FORNEY'S own] to commit the democratic party to the [Sillyman letter] doctrine of introducing Slavery into all the free States, and of holding it there in defiance of State laws."

FORNEY pronounces the Union's argument in support of the Kansas Constitutional Convention "a miserable apology for a great moral fraud," and concludes its declaration of independence with the following, which sounds something like a declaration of war:

"Our able contemporaries have not forgotten that after Governor Walker had exposed the criminal frauds at Oxford and M'Gee; after the fire-eaters and extremists were hunting him down like a felon; when all honest men were applauding him for his courage and his integrity, the Washington Union had not a word to say in his support. It was as silent as death, and dared not so much as raise a whisper for the gallant statesman, absent from his family and his friends, fighting against as graceful a set of tricksters, as ever lived. The Union waited, like a cautious politician, till the hour came when it could take vengeance on those who stood by Governor Walker in that crisis. And we, thank God! were among the first to do, and so receive the first stab!

But more than this. While Governor Walker was still absent, and nothing was yet known of his action on the Calhoun constitution, the Union, in an editorial ecstacy that would not have been an inappropriate gesture of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, eulogized the minority Convention at Lecompton, applauded their doing as wise, sagacious, and statesmanlike, and then proceeded to present the Calhoun Constitution to the Democracy of the free States to swallow, failing in which, they were to be handed over to the Abolitionists. A few days after this most delectable piece of editorial agility, Governor Walker made his appearance, and took exactly opposite ground to the Union—the ground, indeed, occupied by the entire body of the Democracy of the North. Indignant at this, its most pitiable dilemma, and desperate at the scoraful independence of those Democrats who will not be dragooned by any man into submission to confess wrong, much less by so awkward a drill sergeant as the Union, it has lost its patience, and attempts to intimidate with all the infantile vigor truly diluvial, we are told.

We have only to say, finally, to the Washington Union, that we despise and reject its censorship. When it speaks of Abolition sympathies, it should look closely to its own household. We defend a great principle. We oppose no slave States fairly made. We resist wrong and fraud, whether practised for or against the South. We stand by the author of the Nebraska bill. Is he an Abolitionist? We stand by the Governor of Kansas. Is he a disorganizer? We follow the public opinion that elected James Buchanan. It was not false in 1856. It is not false now. Supported by such authorities, we can afford to look down with ineffable contempt upon a newspaper which, like Tom Thumb before an audience of full grown men, imagines itself a king, when it is only the puppet of a set of grasping speculators.

The Free Lovers Again—Bonfire—A Chase after one of the "Lovers."

[From the Sandusky Register.]

A correspondent from Berlin gives us the particulars of a racy occurrence there, on Wednesday of this week. It will be remembered that one of the stipulations of the rebellious fellow prisoners, during the recent legal proceedings here, was that the press of their Free Love organ, the Social Revolutionist, should be taken out of the county. Our correspondent states that instead of being thus carried away, it was simply removed from the Davis House to the "Free Love Farm," where Frank Barry and a few others of "the fraternity" still remain, (the sale on foreclosure of mortgage not having yet been made,) and another number of the publication printed. On Wednesday Barry started for the Post Office at "the Heights," with several bushels of copies of the Revolutionist for mailing. The ladies of the village had heard of his coming, and prepared to testify their appreciation of his "perseverance under difficulties," by a reception. They accordingly assembled in the vicinity of the Post Office, and awaited Barry's coming; having previously procured a quantity of straw and other material for use in the ceremonies. Presently Frank drove up to the office, and proceeded to hitch his horse. While engaged at this, the ladies made a rush for his wagon, and before he could realize what was transpiring, they had seized all the load (which was in bags) and were making up street at Oregon speed. Frank started a desperate chase in pursuit, but when he overtook the fair despoilers he was under so great headway that he unluckily stumbled over the bags and fell. In an instant some of the stronger of the ladies had seized his long beard, and held him down while the rest bore away the prize. And in a few moments more, the prostrate captive was made to look upon the entire edition of The Social Revolutionist, ascending in the smoke of a bonfire. The fire began to blaze, the bells of the village began to ring, and almost the entire inhabitants came forth to look also. The burning mass was faithfully attended, and kept stirred up by the ladies, until the last leaf of the edition was consumed; the poor captive disciple of "freedom for the affections" looking on, a perfect picture of despair.

But "the end was not yet." The prisoner had been released, when a cry was raised, "Catch him and shear him!" Accordingly a rush was made for the poor fellow, but he was satisfied and anxious "for quits," and "struck a bee-line" for his wagon. He was heartily pursued, but with speed quickened by desperation, and practice, gained the wagon first, sprang in, and was off as fast as Free Love horseflesh could carry him. The ladies pursued no further but returned to their homes.

And thus, it is presumed, endeth the last chapter in the history of Free Love literature, in Berlin.

Mortgage Sale.

DEFAULT HAVING BEEN MADE IN the conditions of a certain chattel mortgage, executed by Chauncey D. Spaulding of the city of Chicago, in the State of Illinois, to Quayle & Martin of the city of Cleveland, in the State of Ohio, upon the schooner Hugh Barclay, her tackle, apparel, furniture, and all the appurtenances thereunto belonging, the Master Carpenter's Certificate of Survey being as follows, to-wit:

"Master Carpenter's Certificate of Schooner Hugh Barclay, District of Cuyahoga, Port of Cleveland, April 1st, 1857.

"We, Quayle & Martin, of Cleveland, do certify that the schooner named the Hugh Barclay was built by us and under our direction, at Cleveland, Ohio, during 1857, for Chauncey D. Spaulding, of Chicago; that said vessel is a schooner built, has one deck, two masts, is 128 feet in length, 26'00 in breadth, 11'36 in depth, of 320 tons burthen.

"As witness our hand, the day and year aforesaid.

(Signed) QUAYLE & MARTIN."

Which said mortgage was executed for the purpose of securing the payment of certain promissory notes by promissory notes of twelve hundred sixty four 17-100 dollars each drawn by Chauncey D. Spaulding and Caleb Cleveland, April 25th, 1857, due and payable, with interest, to the order of Quayle & Martin, at the Marine Bank, Chicago, and which said mortgage was filed for record and recorded in the office of the Collector of the Port of Chicago, in the book of mortgages, on page 747 and 748, and which said notes mortgaged as aforesaid, by said mortgagor, transferred to William R. Gower & Co. of the city of Cleveland, in the State of Ohio, who are now the owner and holders thereof.

Now, therefore, by virtue of the premises aforesaid, and of the authority in said mortgage contained, we have taken possession of the said schooner Hugh Barclay, her tackle, apparel, furniture and appurtenances, now lying in the city of Ogdensburgh, in the county of St. Lawrence, and State of New York, where we shall sell the same for cash, at the new dock, on the dock of the said schooner Hugh Barclay, on the 8th day of January next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

Dated Ogdensburgh, N. Y., December 1st, 1857.

☞ The most skeptical people can be convinced by trial, that all the family medicines are not humbug, and that among the thousand of butterfly N's, there are a few of great merit and undoubted worth. Of these, Dr. Seaford's Inebriator, or Liver Remedy, stands first and foremost among the remedies of the day in it can be relied on, as a medicine that is all it is recommended by its proprietors. It advertises itself on every trial—for there are none who use it but tell their friends to do so, and so it goes from month to month, till all the people of the Union have learned the good of this truly valuable medicine. It is recommended, with testimonials to prove its virtue, for the cure of Liver Complaints of every kind, from the worst Dyspepsia to a common Headache, and is particularly adapted to Jaundice, Deranged Stomach, Bowel Complaints and Diseases of Children. ☞ A good article will always triumph over any pretended imitation. It has been said that every city is a paradise of humbugs; but let a really meritorious article appear, capable of doing all that is promised for it, and it will stand the test of any opposition dependent upon inflated notoriety; and Hostetter's famed Stomach Bitters are evidence of this, for it has been taken hold of by the people and tried, and not found wanting in curing any case of Dyspepsia, in any form. When these facts are known, why should it not be appreciated and used by everybody.

Hair Dye—Hair Dye—Hair Dye.—Batchelor's Hair Dye is the best in the world. It is the original and only harmless, reliable Hair Dye known. No bilterns, no dye, no burning off of the hair—the result of using the many base imitations. The ludicrous and miserable effects of bad Dyes speak loudly for themselves, and grey, rusty red or frowsy hair instantly superseded by lustrous black or beautiful brown, and the hair invigorated for life by using Batchelor's Liquid Hair Dye. What is so ridiculous as the rainbow tints and lilac heads of hair imparted by these pretenders. Avoid the risk and escape ridicule. Bogus Hydrometers—Notice.—The subscriber, in justice to the public, as well as to himself, puts before the following result of an examination of an imported Silver Hydrometer, made in close imitation of his Hydrometers, and numbering 305, but no name:
"In Spirit, 91 over proof is showed 4½ per cent too strong, and the error increased, till at proof it showed eleven per cent too strong by the Standard Hydrometer."
In returning thanks to the Western Distillers, Brewers and Spirit Dealers, he would observe, that as regards the mechanical finish of his instruments, they will bear favorable comparison with those having the names of "Adams & Taglibue" upon them, which were put together in the workshop of G. Taglibue, J. Adams undertaking only the general superintendence and doing the most essential part, namely, the graduating and adjusting, at his own residence. He has certificates of Drs. Chilton and Cogswell; and Cranse, Distillers, N. Y.; also the cards of A. & T.] J. A., however, freely acknowledges that his chief attention is still directed to the accuracy of his instruments; for it appears to him, that when the discordity has been made that shows per cents is being lost by the use of a hydrometer like No. 305 without a name, it would be but small consolation to reflect that it was done by a very pretty and well finished instrument.
Messrs. J. H. Reed & Co., 144 & 146 Lake street, Chicago, continue to be supplied with his Hydrometers and Saccharometers, and he pledges himself that the same care and skill which gained for the instrument of his original and ever elosure make their character for accuracy, shall be continued to all which bear his name.

Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.—In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates. Now, to allay inflammation, strike at the root of the disease—hence an immediate cure.
Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.
Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Strains, Wens, Felons, Chilblains, Piles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Fresno, Barbaka, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.
To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one remedy, yet such an idea will vanish when we acknowledge to the fact, that the above is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a particular antidote to its opposite disorder.
Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor in its effect is magical, because the taste is no short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, workshop or manufactory, should be one moment without it.
No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.

Lea & Perrins' Worcestershire Sauce
The attention of Hotel Keepers, Proprietors of Eating Houses, Caterers for Clubs, Messrooms, and Private Families is recommended to a trial of Lea & Perrins' famous Worcestershire Sauce. This unrivalled production has attained the highest rank as a pleasant, palatable, and wholesome Sauce, applicable to soup, fish, hot and cold meats, game, &c., &c., is extensively used in all quarters of the globe.
The numerous "imitations" on both sides of the Atlantic speak loudly of its merits; and the fact that it received the only Medal awarded to foreign Sauce at the New York Exhibition attests the estimation in which it is held by those scientist with special reference to their ability to judge of the quality of similar articles of table use. And being the most popular Sauce in the market unprincipled parties are offering for sale spurious Sauce by slightly varying the spelling of "Lea & Perrins," only proprietors of the Genuine Sauce.

☞ The most skeptical people can be convinced by trial, that all the family medicines are not humbug, and that among the thousand of butterfly N's, there are a few of great merit and undoubted worth. Of these, Dr. Seaford's Inebriator, or Liver Remedy, stands first and foremost among the remedies of the day it can be relied on, as a medicine that is all it is recommended by its proprietors. Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor.—In all diseases inflammation more or less predominates. Now, to allay inflammation, strike at the root of the disease—hence an immediate cure.
Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor, and nothing else, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure.
Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor will cure the following among a great catalogue of diseases: Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Strains, Wens, Felons, Chilblains, Piles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Fresno, Barbaka, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum, Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbers' Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c.
To some it may appear incredulous that so many diseases should be reached by one remedy, yet such an idea will vanish when we acknowledge to the fact, that the above is a combination of ingredients, each and every one applying a particular antidote to its opposite disorder.
Dalley's Magical Pain Extractor in its effect is magical, because the taste is no short between disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nature as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely necessary to say that no house, workshop or manufactory, should be one moment without it.
No Pain Extractor is genuine unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer.
